NBVC Military Youth of the Year

The Military Youth of the Year Program is a Boys and Girls Club-affiliated program that recognizes Military Youth/Teens for their dedication to the program, and application fulfillment, and celebrates their leadership role within their Youth Facility and in their community. This Military Youth of the Year scholarship opportunity has three levels of competition; Local, State, and National. Selected teens will compete with other selected teens and move through these levels of competition. With that in mind, only one will be selected at each level to move forward. Teens have the opportunity to win prizes and/or scholarship money all while gaining valuable professional skills and experiences.

The 2024 NBVC MYOY award winner is Mr. Devez D. We caught up with Devez for a brief Q&A session after winning the award to get to know him better and find out what his plans are for the future.
